Just Hangin' Around

Thersa Jenkins sits pretty.

We're number #1.

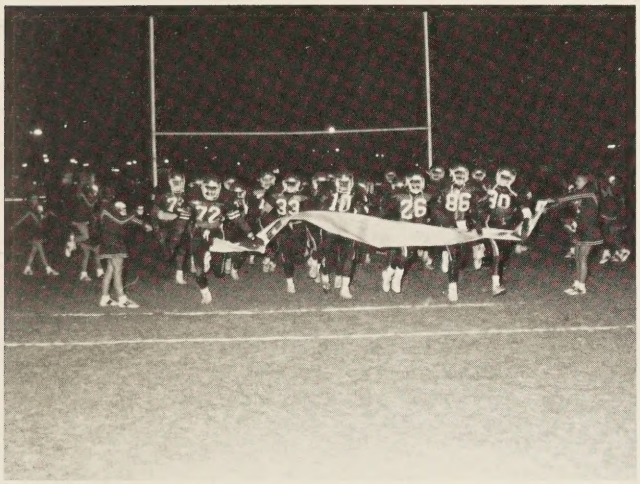
Chorus is all for the Mustangs.

Say Cheese!

The J.V. cheerleaders say Hi!

Mrs. Swinton stops to smile.

Floating Their Way To The Top



The Mustangs break the ties.

Welcome to the jungle.

Varsity cheerleaders did their part for the victory.

A Mustang receiver catches a pass for a long gainer.

A Mustang makes the tackle a little too late.

Sadly, this score was almost right.

Head Of The Class

Christina Coleson

These three have studied their way to the top of the graduating class, even with football, cheering, and tennis. At the time of publication, the top honor graduate was still pending, but all three are tops.

Christina Goodwyn

Mark Jenkins

Woman In Charge

The woman in charge is Ms. Judy Kirman. Ms. Kirman became the #1 mustang in 1987. She has done a wonderful job in running the school. Ms. Kirman has supported the students 100% in social events also. Ms. Kirman we want you to know you are doing a super job and keep up the good work.

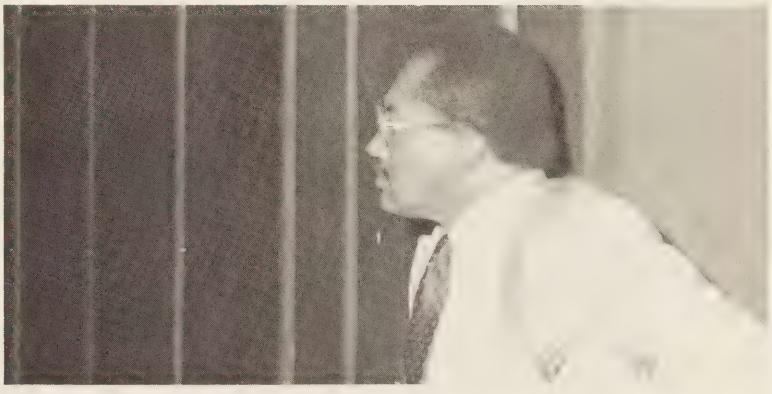
Ms. Kirman flashes her great smile at the fall sports banquet.

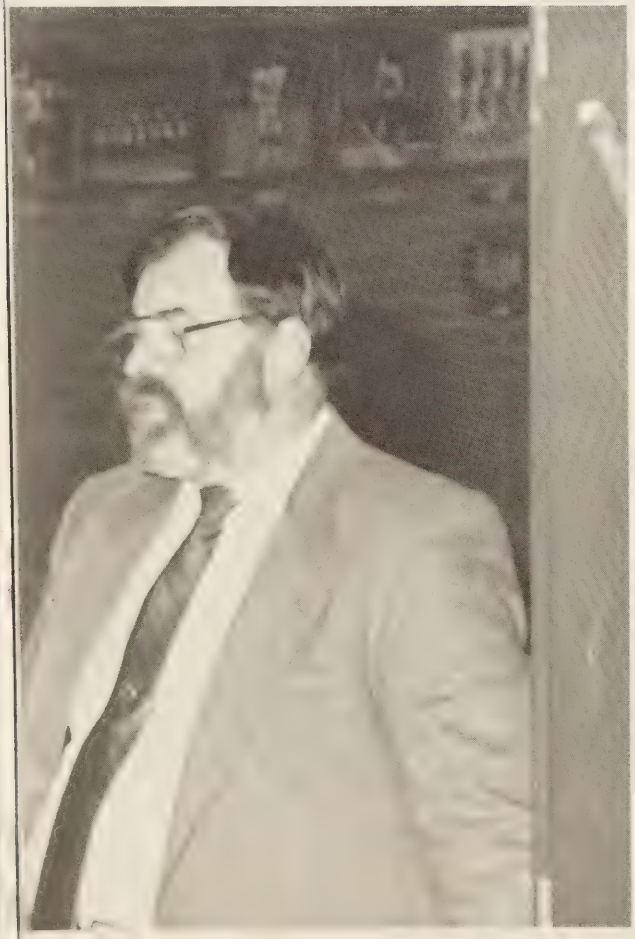
Ms. Kirman and Mr. Jeter discuss business.

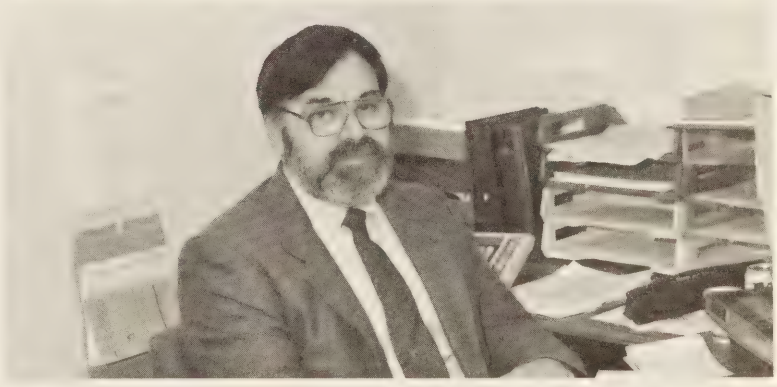
Ms. Kirman also feels comfortable around faculty workers.

Mr. Dewayne Jeter is an assistant principal at Manor. Mr. Jeter has done a great job working with the students. He disciplines them and he also tries to help them in every way he can. We Thank You Mr. Jeter for all that you have done, and hope you continue to do the same in all the years to come.

Her Assistants







Mr. Charles Perlick is also an assistant principal at Manor. Mr. Perlick is a mild and calm looking man, but don't let his looks fool you. He is very aware of what's going on here at Manor. We Thank You Mr. Perlick and keep up the good work.

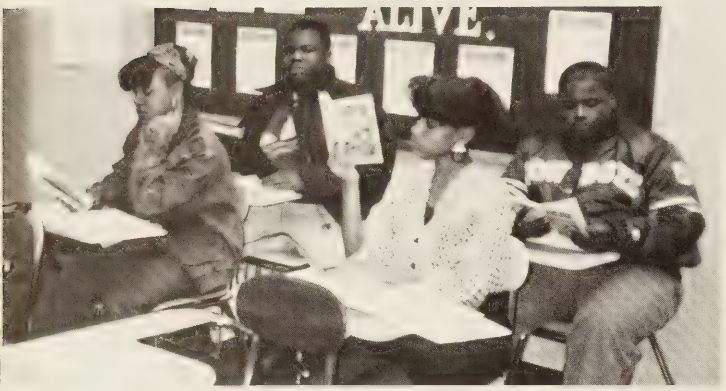
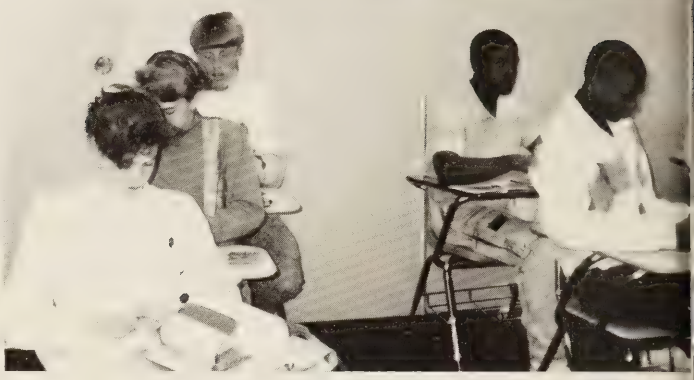
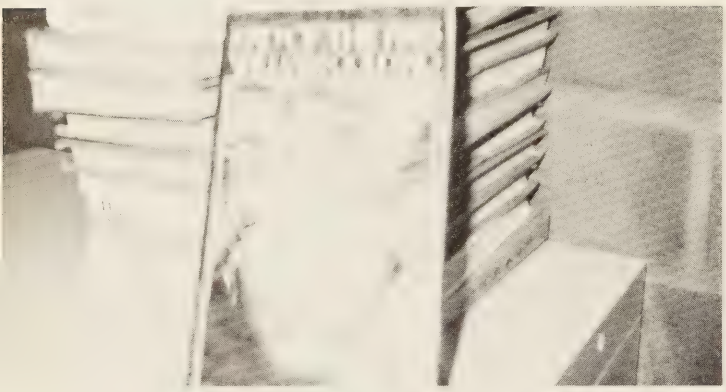
A Mind Is A Terrible Thing



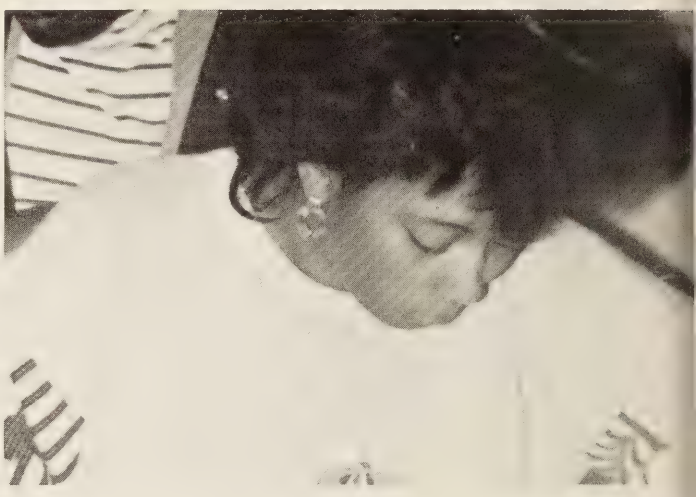
Reading is fundamental.



Some of us should be studying.



One of Mr. Williams favorite books is LORD OF THE FLIES.



I don't think Donna knows what she's reading.

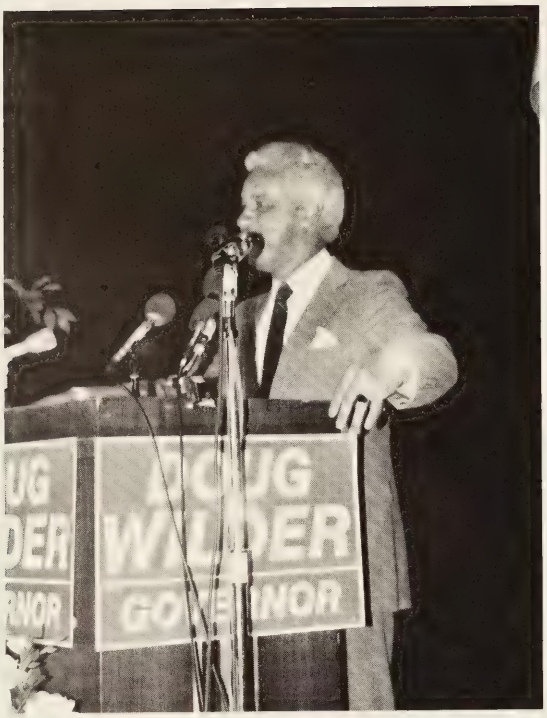
Tawana is trying very hard to concentrate.

To Waste

Who wrote this book?

LADY
MUSTANGS

The Campaign

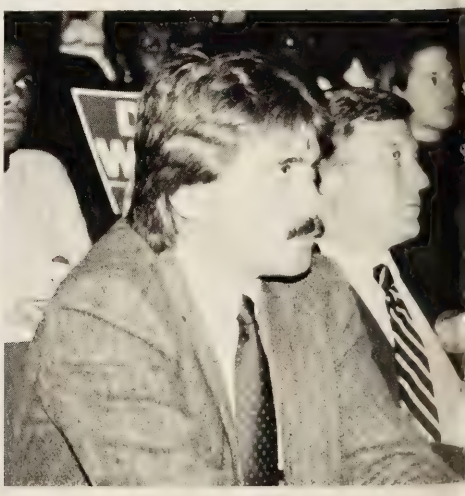


Doug Wilder is enjoying himself at Manor.

Students await the arrival of Doug Wilder.

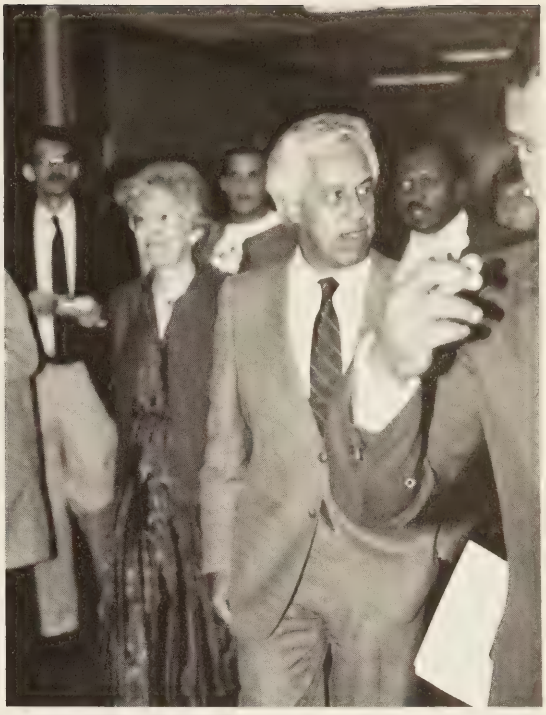
Go

JoAnn Coley is very excited that Doug Wilder is here, as she greets him with the help of Ms. Kirman and Mr. Jeter.



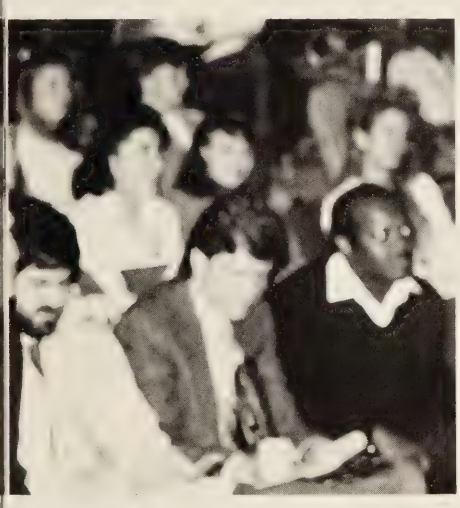
Trail At Manor

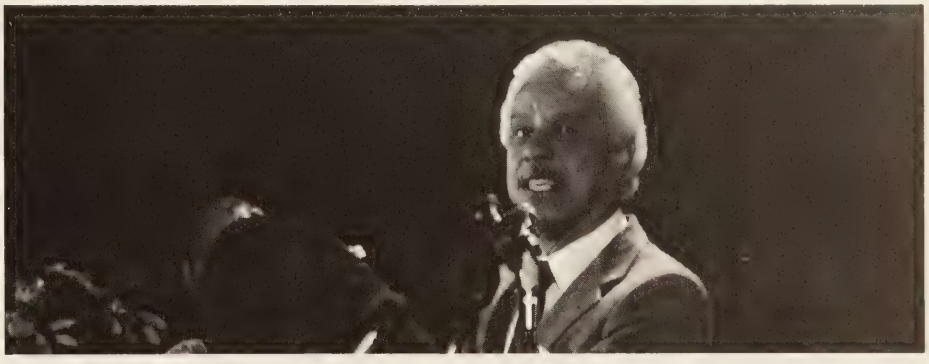
Nicholas Carr presents Doug Wilder with a Manor Band sweat shirt.



Doug Wilder and his many supporters view the library window which is full of supportive posters.

Doug

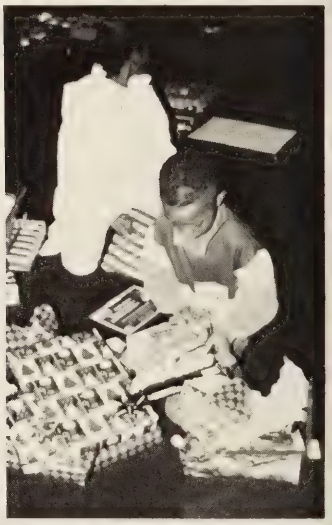




Doug Wilder is grateful for the Manor Band sweat shirt.

Christmas Spirit

Each year the SCA, under the direction of Mrs. Swinston, sponsors, Operation Santa Claus. Many clubs and organizations come together to sponsor a child for Operation Santa Claus. Andrea Harris is the SCA president.



Ms. Kirman loves to be involved in student activities and Operation Santa Claus was an event that served a good cause. However, she seems to have reversed the roles a little.

Mock Election 89

Shevine Gadson shows her pearly whites while voting.

Garon Grey and Felicia Jones think hard on their decision.

The Mock election was held on Monday November 6. It was coordinated by the Social Studies Department. Only students who had registered could vote. The results were that all the Democratic Party candidates won their elections. Doug Wilder, the Gubernatorial candidate won by a 2-1 margin.

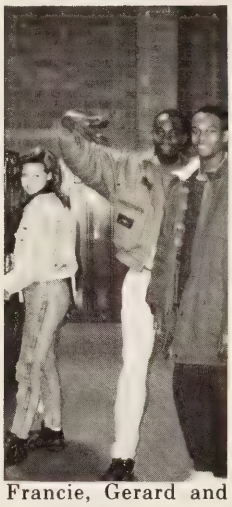
Givonna Cheeks and Latisha Gatling are tallying the votes.

Francine Terry ponders her decision.

In Or Out Of Class

Renee and Aimee have a chat about boys and how heavy their book bags are.



Francie, Gerard and Darrell love to smile for cameras.

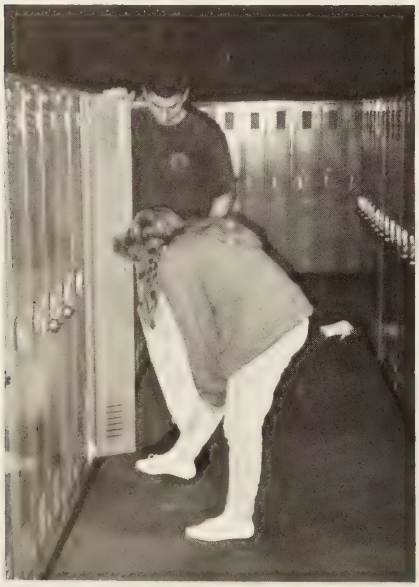
Derrick looks away, but Keasha and Tonya are ready to have their picture taken.

Shanita, Monique, and Rita all shop at Bermans.

Christina hears no evil, Tamara speaks no evil, and of course Lori sees no evil.

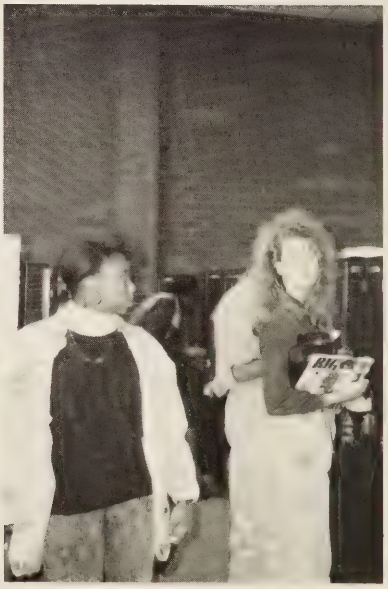
These freshmen girls are proud to support Manors gossip society.

Manor's Students



Kim kicks her heels up over Chris.

Hey, Hey, What can we say? We look good.



Janey and Niki are laughing around the lockers again.

Have A Blast!!

Foreign Language Department

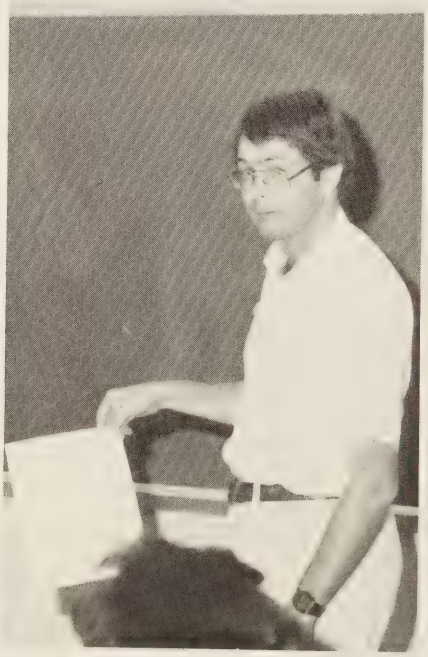
The Spanish, French, and Latin Clubs have combined to form a Foreign Language Club. They explore customs and prepare foods for each culture. Students also learn parts of other languages when participating in contests during meetings. There are twenty-five members in the Foreign Language Club. The club is open to any student with interest in foreign language. They are planning to have games, cooking, eating, and native speakers in to talk with students. Miss Lucas and Mrs. Diggs are the club's sponsors.

French students will be visiting Canada this Spring. Students from Manor and Wilson are having fund raisers for transportation money.

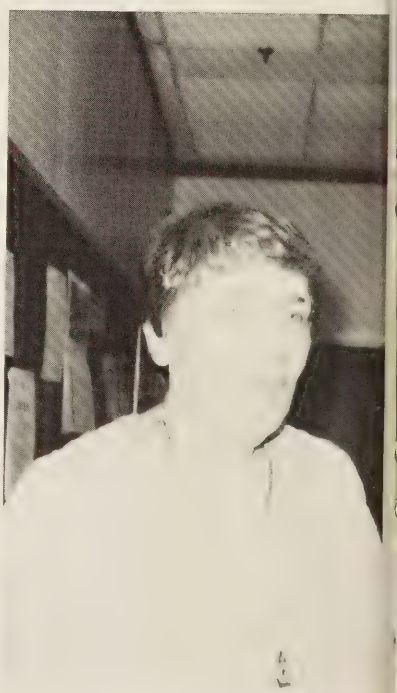
Foreign language students will be invited to the Portsmouth Foreign Language fair that is planned for the spring. This will include all students from Portsmouth's Junior High and High Schools.

Miss Elizabeth A. Lucas — Department Chairman

Mrs. Carol Diggs



Mr. John W. Crute

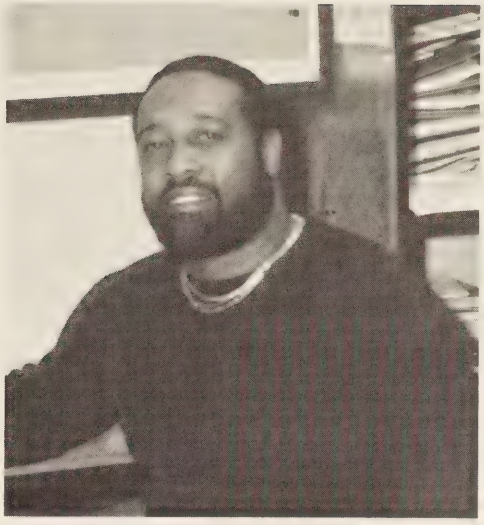


Mrs. Maisie O. Determeyer

We Keep Them In Shape

Mr. Gary Schmitt

Ms. Penny Rucker

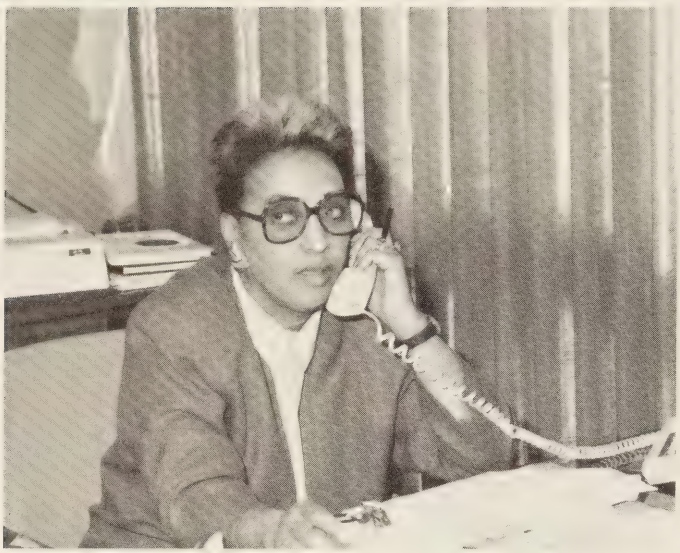


Mr. James Morrison

The Physical Education Department is comprised of two parts 9th and 10th grades. The 9th grade classes concentrate on the physical, mental, social and philosophical aspects of health. The 10th grade classes concentrate mainly on Drivers' Education, Physical Education, and First Aid. The students in the Physical education classes held a competition in which a group from each class competed for the speed ball championship. The classes also spend a great deal of time on softball, tennis, aerobics, volleyball, and basketball. They are also involved in bowling. The teachers of physical education classes try to make the classes exciting and fun for the students.

Ms. Janet Staples — Department Chairman

Our Office Workers —



Mrs. Gatling, Manor's money manager, is always busy on the phone or doing papers.

Our office receptionist, Mrs. Saunders, is never too busy to show us her pretty smile.

Mrs. Thompson is our head office manager, and very needed.

Are On Top!

Although our school nurse, Mrs. Hutchings is still relatively new at Manor, she is still well appreciated.

Our planatarium director, Mr. Nold, brings stars to Manor.

They Lead Us Towards Our Future Goals!

Guidance Head, Mrs. Hatfield, is always serious about a student's future.

Not only is Guidance Secretary Mrs. Dover a big help to Guidance staff, but also a great help to student's.

Mr. Watson tries to look like he's working, but we know the truth Wally! (Counselor Sophomores and Seniors)

Mrs. Hatfield shows us her party face.

Mrs. Plummer always has plenty of space on her desk to lay the facts out for students. (Counselor Freshmen and Juniors)

TMR People

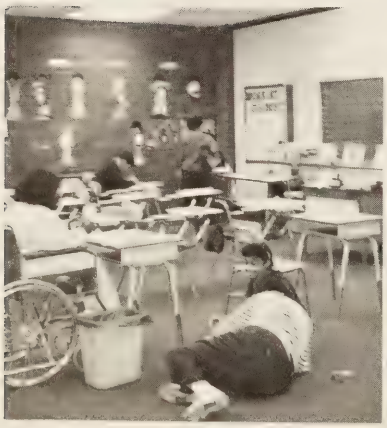
Mrs. Riddick stops to take a picture.

Mrs. Sebastian poses behind her desk.

Mrs. Hudson shows us her beautiful smile.

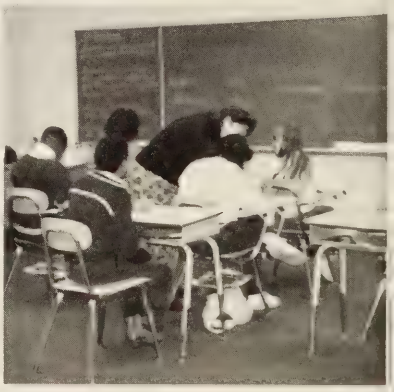
The TMR (Trainable Mentally Retarded) department is one of the newest editions at Manor. Pictured here are the TMR teachers. These teachers do an excellent job of teaching and helping the mentally retarded and disabled students attending Manor.

Mrs. Riddick and Mrs. Anderson show off their bulletin board.



The students work well together.

Mrs. Seaton teaches math as evident on the blackboard.

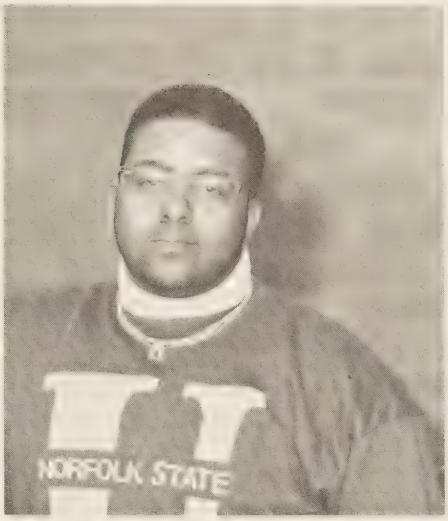


Mrs. Sebastian is busy teaching her students.

Helping People

Mrs. Fuller is one of the TMR paraprofessionals.

The TMR paraprofessionals help the teachers. They are there in the event of an emergency with one of the students. They also help the students. The Parpaprofessionals are a very important part of the TMR Department.



Mr. Smith teaches Building Maintenace to the TMR students.

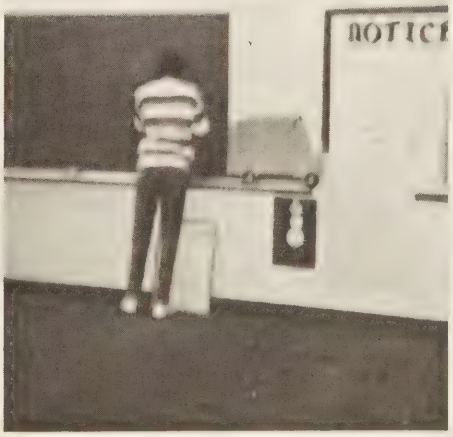
Mrs. Wilkins poses in front of a students working area.

Mrs. Smith is smiles for the camera.

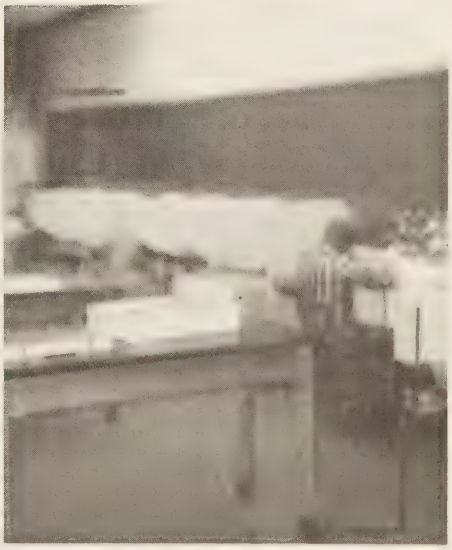
Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Fuller serve pizza for the TMR Pizza party.

Mrs. Seaton poses with two of her students.

Mrs. English, a paraprofessional, looks over some work.



We are always working.



Students are working in one of the work areas.

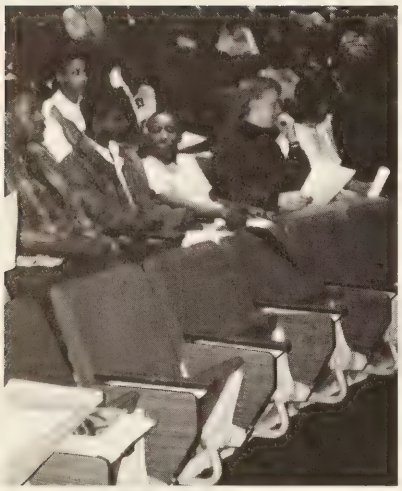
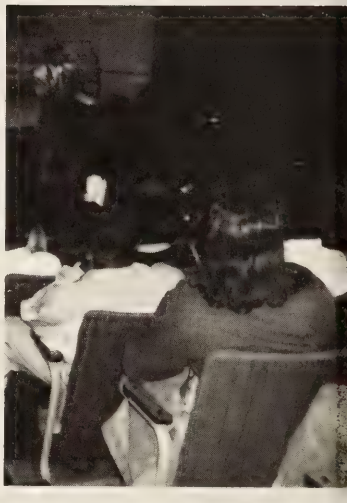
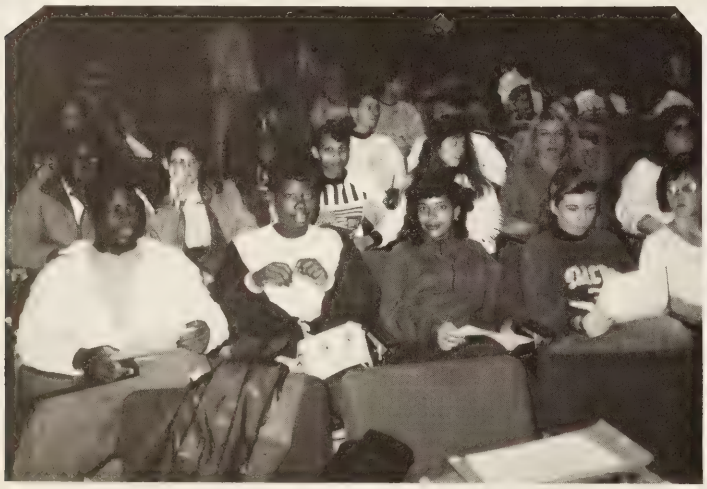
Russian Visitor

Some of the students questions caused our visitor to smile.



The Russian visitor spoke about how his country's constitution has changed over the years. He left Russia for freedom and peace. The fact that our customs and beliefs are so much different from Russia amused him.





The facts given about Russia kept our students alert.

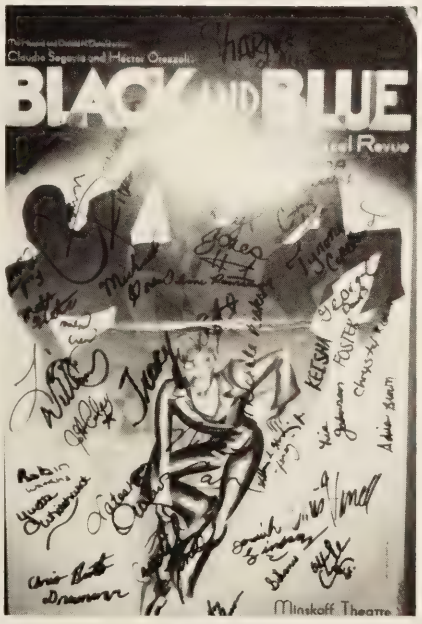
Students from Norcom, Churchland, and Cradock shared in the cultural awaking.

Ruth Weston Brown . . . Encore!

Ruth Brown, the internationally famous vocalist is a native of Portsmouth. In January, the city honored Ms. Brown's birthday with a parade, a banquet, a concert and other activities.

Aaron Fulcher, a Manor freshman, drew a portrait to honor Ms. Brown.

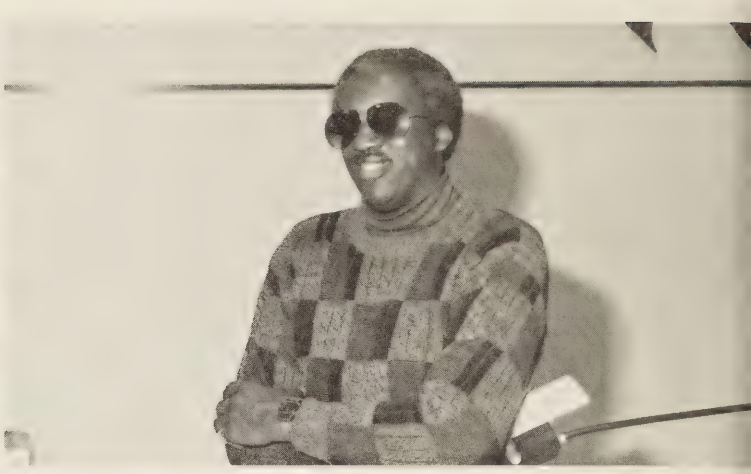
Ms. Brown rendered an outstanding performance at Willett Hall on Saturday, January 13.



This is the poster signed by the Manor band for Ms. Brown.

Custodial Staff

Mr. Davis, building engineer, smiles at his co-workers.



Mr. Sherron is chillin'.

CUSTODIAL STAFF

Betty Adams, George Brown, George Corey, Colon Davis, Mary M. Gray, Catherine Hunt, Rosa Moses, Julia Pointer, Milton Sherron, Richard Sherron, Betsy Small, Ruth Smith, Leanna Spruill, Margaret Standback, Shelby Simmons, Eloise Trotter, Sessoms Wright.

I think Mr. Brown is ready to go home.

Ms. Small and Ms. Pointer pose for their picture.

The Lunch Staff

The Cafeteria Manager is Mrs. Wiggins.

FRIENDSHIP IS A

Friendship is laughing, joking, and trying to study before a quiz.

Friendship is caring about someone special.

Friendship is stopping in the hall to talk to someone you like.

Friendship is cheering together to show school spirit.

VERY SPECIAL THING.

◀ Friendship is walking to school and sharing conversation.

Friendship is trying to study, talk, and share M&M's at the same time. ▶

◀ Friendship is being together just to share happy times.

Homecoming: Andrea Reigns Alone.

David Anderson shares the spotlight with Andrea Harris, the 1989 homecoming queen. William Harding, the 1989 king of the homecoming, made history by being too ill to participate. David Anderson filled in for him and posed as homecoming king.

As usual, Ms. Kirman was on hand to crown the queen.

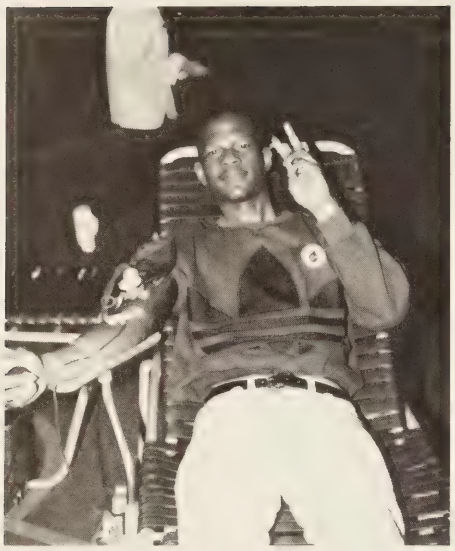
To Give Or Not To Give.



Damon Boone doesn't feel worn out after giving blood.

Shelby Britt is exhausted after giving blood.

Tamara Meade looks fearless under pressure.

The SCA organization sponsored the blood drive. The blood received was donated to the American Red Cross. The date of the blood drive was December the 14th, 1989. 50+ people signed up to give blood. 63 people showed up for the blood drive. 15 people deferred. It was a total of 24 first time donors. The site of the blood drive was the field house. Each one of the 63 people gave 1 pint of blood.

The SCA organization sponsored the blood drive. The blood received was donated

Shane Grant says I can take it.

Tamara Meade is afraid of seeing her own blood.

Mustang Football Players wait for award.

Tommy Reamon makes opening remarks to start the presentation.

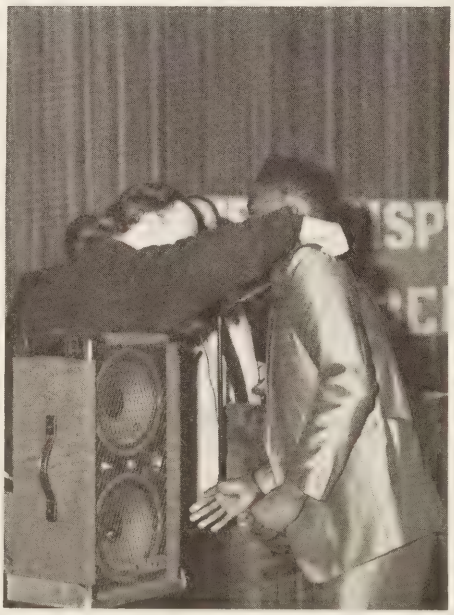
Coach Reamon is giving awards for some of his players.

Coach Reamon hands Fred Lassiter an award for football.

James Barnes gives Coach Hines a hand shake.

Mr. Thomason hands Olendus Gaines an award for receiving.

Coach Thomas and Jay Clarke exchange greetings.



Mike Harris hugs Ronald Collins while receiving his award.

Mr. Dugan, catching the spotlight for a moment, is handing award off.

Mike Veal is getting his award from Coach Williams.

Banquet

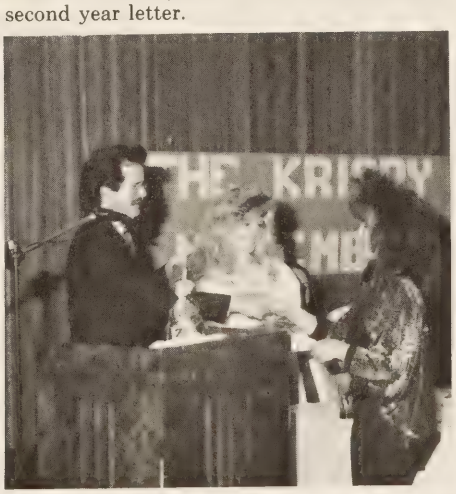
Mr. Pullen, the golf coach, is handing awards to his team.

Mike Harris greets Coach Thomas when banquet is starting.

Mr. Claud is addressing his girls' team.

Mr. Pullen is giving a special award to golf star Neal Boone.

Coach Thomas gave player Nancy Dail her second year letter.



Beth Peterson accepts her tennis award from Mr. Claud.

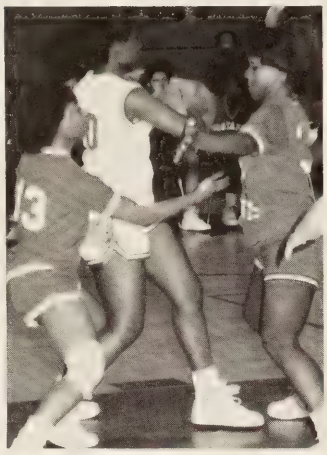
Mr. Pfeifer is giving a track award to David Roberts.

Maggie Wood accepts a volleyball award for being the mascot.

Girls Tennis Team 1989.

J.V. Lady Mustangs

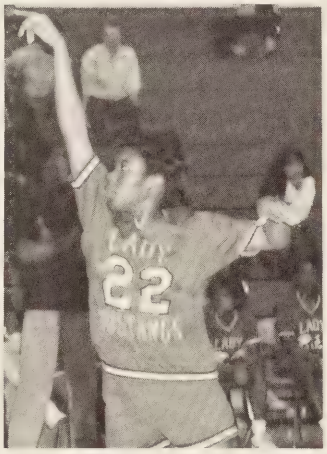
Coach Ellis is intense during the game.



Defense is everything.

THE TEAM

Who will get to the ball first.



A jumper and follow through from the line.

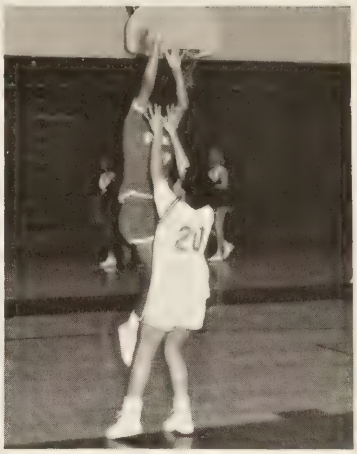
Good

Coach Mike Ellis has begun to build a fine tuned machine in J.V. girls' basketball. Hard work and dedication by the girls and the coach have really paid off.

Nobody can stop this layup.

. . . Or this one.

Have A Slamming Time



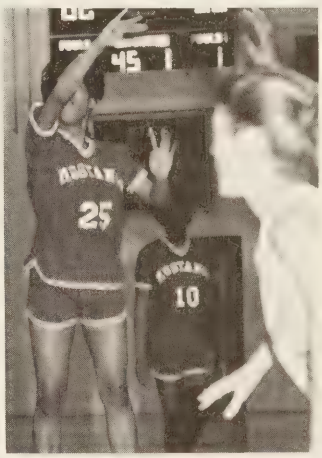
This jumper is on the way.

Somebody has to be open.

Time

Layup again!

She can do it all.

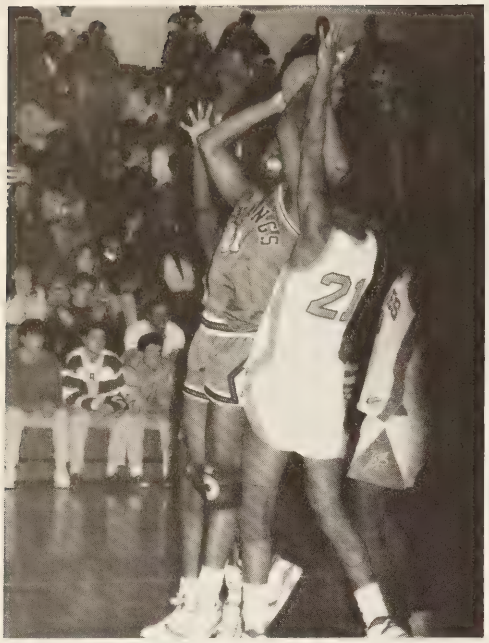


See no evil.

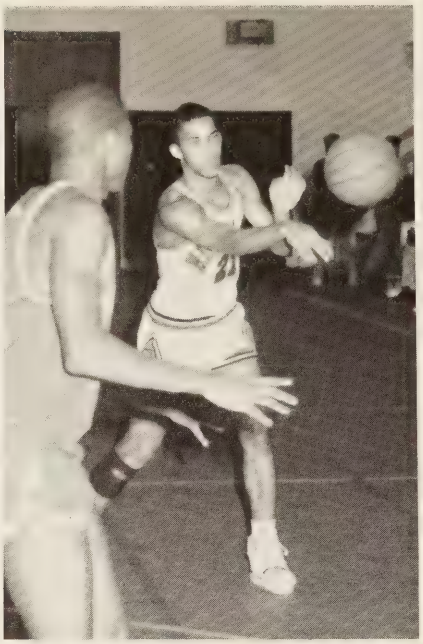
I've got another rebound!

What goes up must come down!

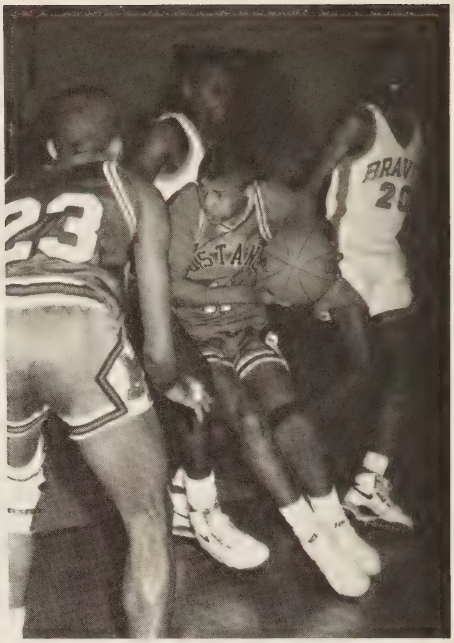
Mustangs



Senior captain Darrius Hunter goes up strong.



Senior captain Aaron Green looks to pass.



Senior captain Shuane Dickens goes to the hoop.

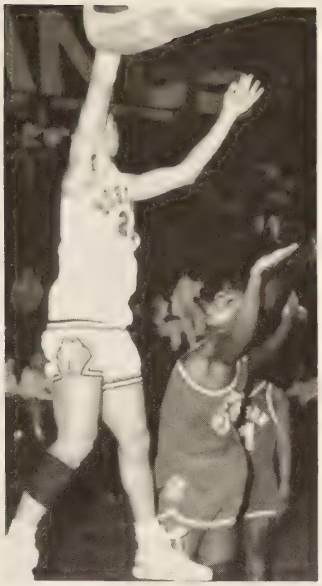
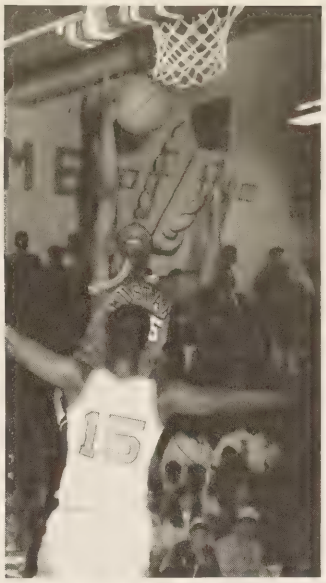
The Manor Mustangs started the 89-90 Basketball season with a 5-0 mark, one of the best starts in Manor history. In the later months their record fell, but Manor will still end up with a winning record for the season.

Basketball

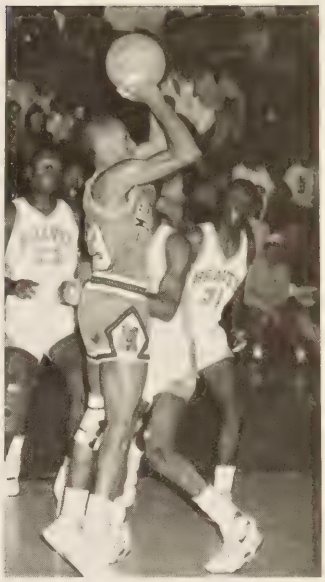
Troy Hughes shoots in the face of a defender.



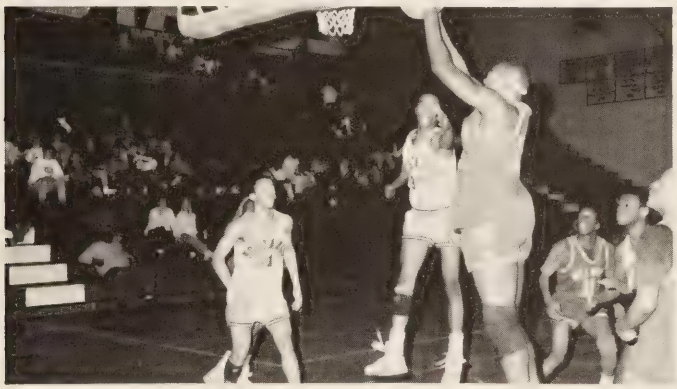
Aaron Green elevates over another player.



Deshun Lowery takes it strong to the hoop.



Troy pulls down a power rebound.



Kevin Carr tries for a block.

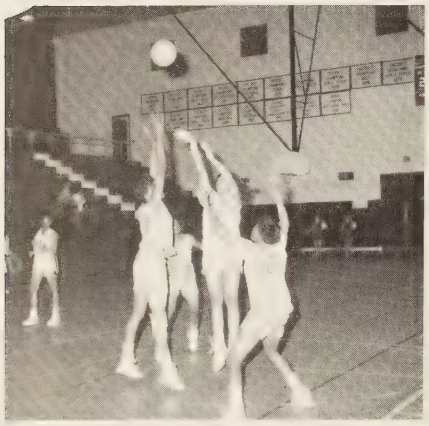
Aaron Green shoots in traffic.

Point guard Shuane Dickens is second to none in ball handling.

Aaron tries the reverse lay up.

Varsity Basketball

The Mustangs are ready!

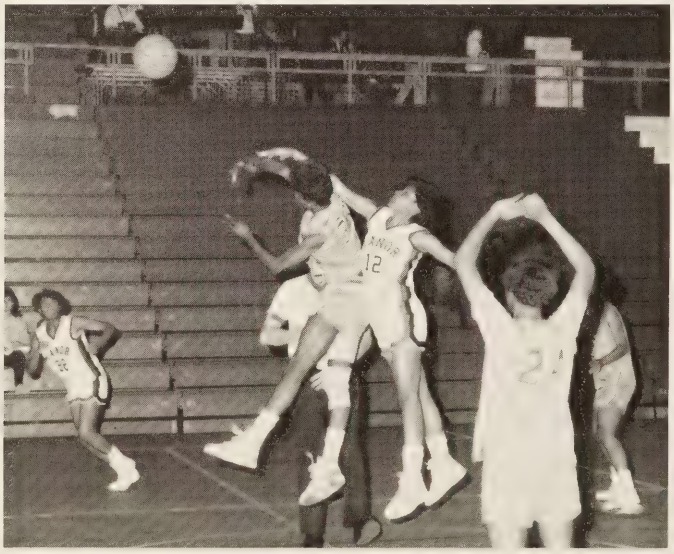


Lynzell Vaughan is excited about making her best jump shot of the year.

Yolanda Beasley is trying to steal the ball with alot of pressure.

Lateshia Spencer takes a shot she can't miss.

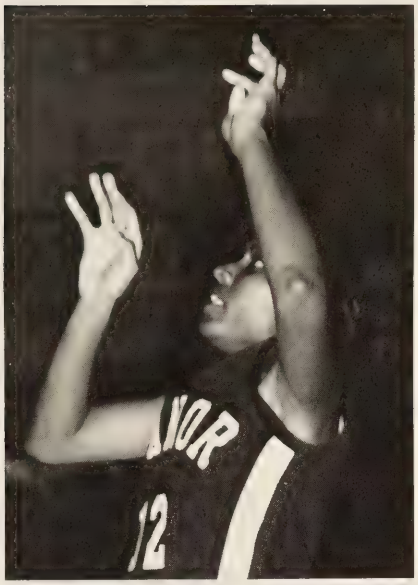
Kim Mack gives off good defense.



Lateshia Spencer packs the ball with all her might.

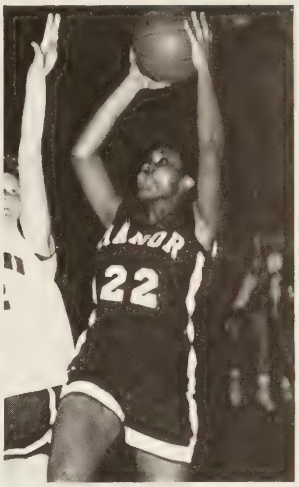
Kesha Bagby is excited about getting hold of the ball.

Girls Take Control



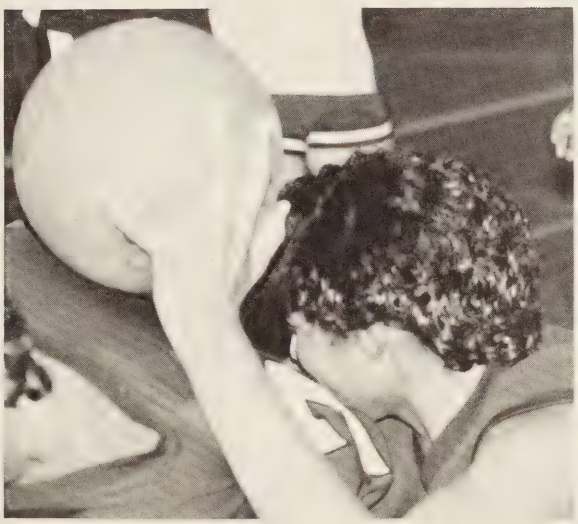
Let me catch it!

Sasha Wright throws a hook shot.

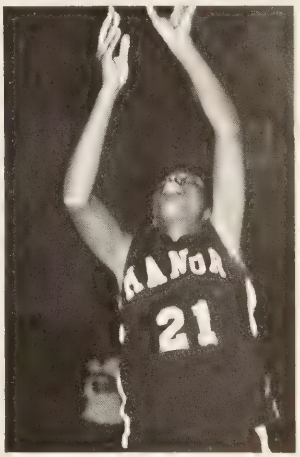


"Move out my way girl, I'm gonna make this shot!"

Kim Mack catches her breath before she helps her teamate.

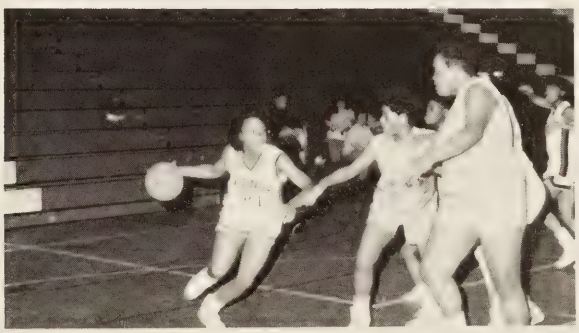


Keasha Bagby wants a part in catching the rebound.

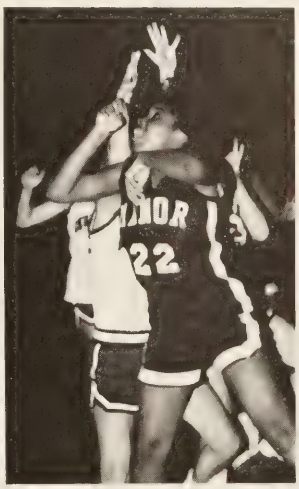


Lynzell Vaughan reaches for the ball with strain.

Which one will get the ball first?



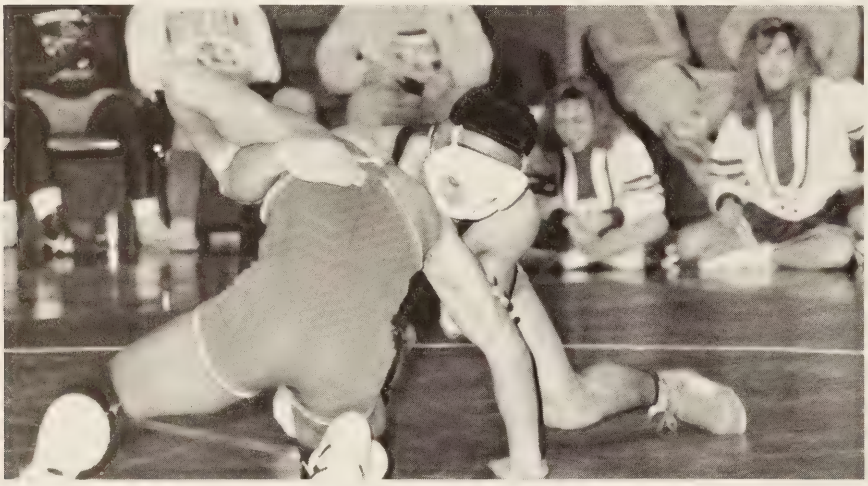
Move over, because here comes Lynzell!!



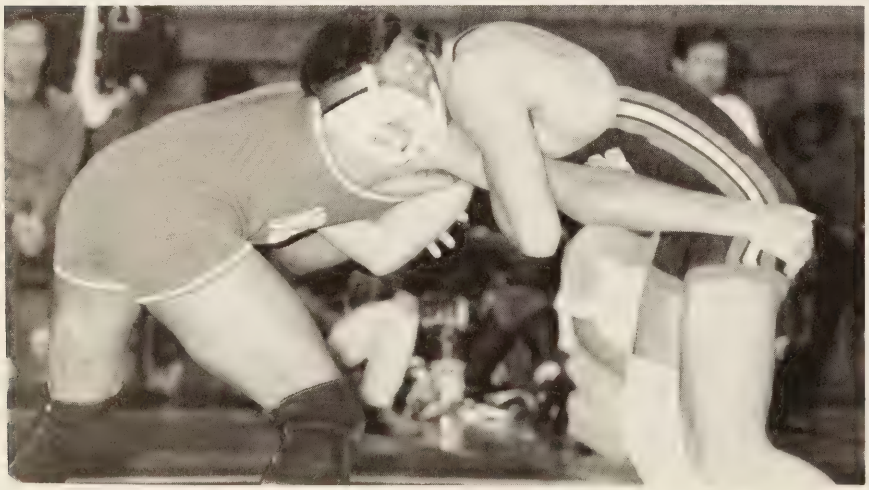
Dayna Williams takes pride in catching the ball.

They Are The Ones

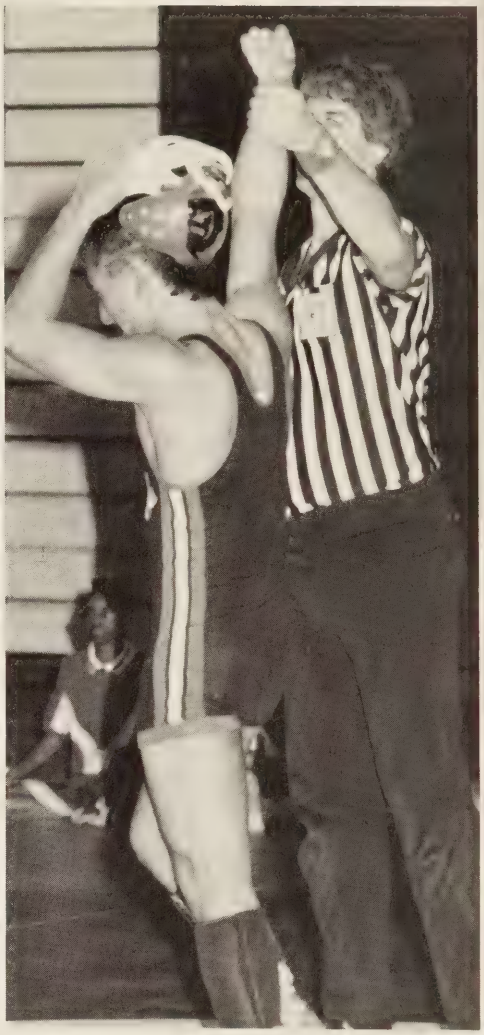
Coach Reynolds gives David some last minute instructions.



Come on David you can do it.



David seems to be getting the better of his opponent.



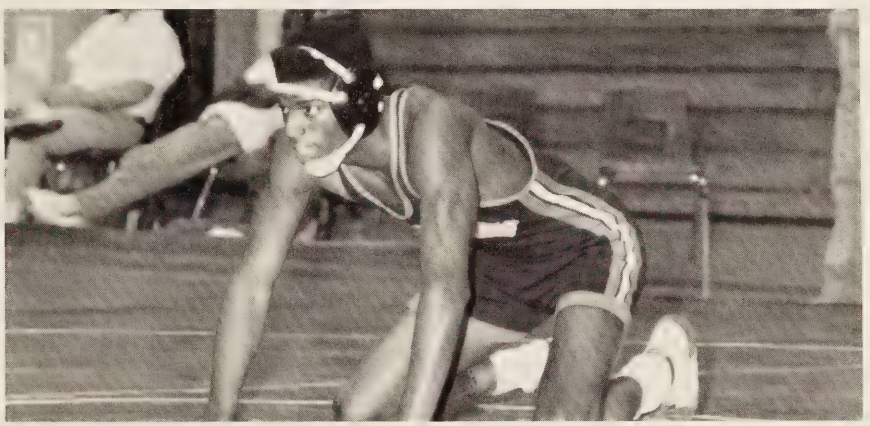
David does it again.

David Anderson is one of the most outstanding wrestlers at Manor.

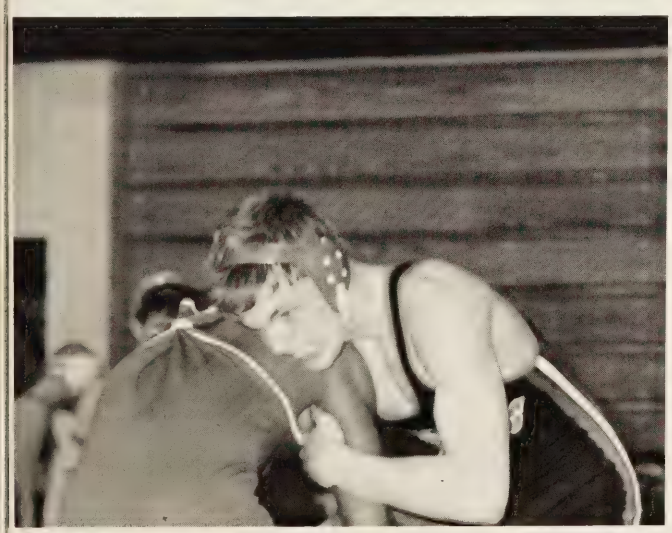
With The Power

Come on Chad flip him.

What are you going to now Nathan?



Are you ready Allen?



Chris Reardon really wants to win.

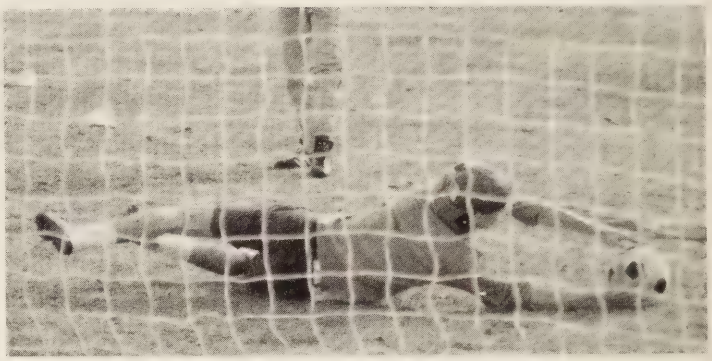
Jesse seems to be winning.

Kicking It Around

Coach Watson explains to David what's going wrong.

Chuck and Billy race hard to reach the ball.

Billy and Allan show they have the right moves.



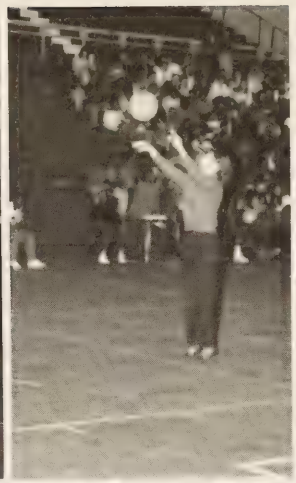
Coach Rob makes sure Mike goes down.

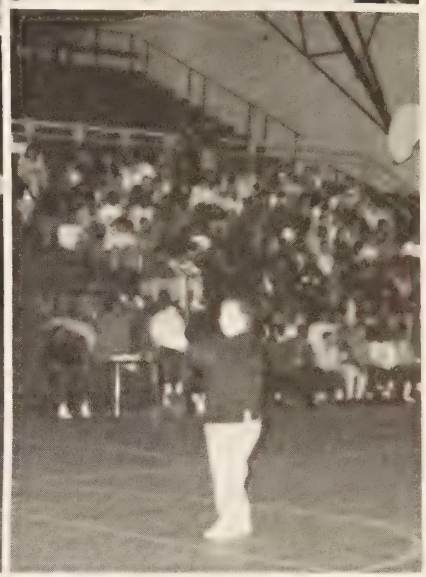
Chuck's going to prove that this ball is his.

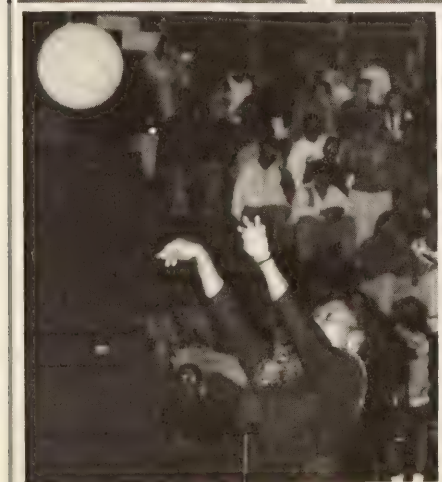
Once a week Mr. Watson brings interested students together for a little training in soccer. Mr. Watson also has brought an all girls soccer team, which will be the first ever in Manor.

The ball looks as though it will go right between this player's legs.

Mike's down again.

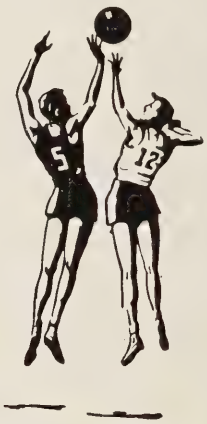


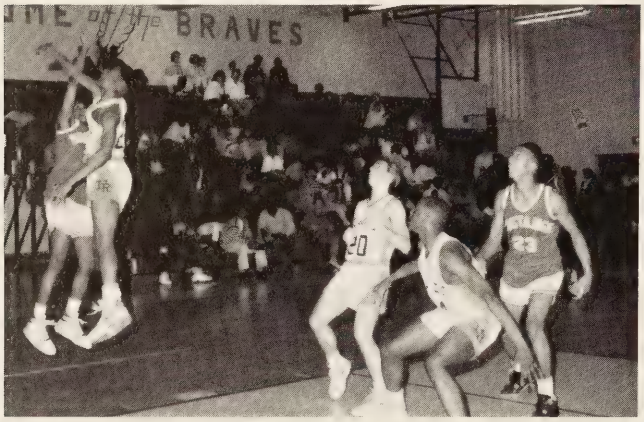




Boys JV

Jay Clark, the outstanding eighth grader, is the leading scorer and rebounder for the Junior Varsity Team. Even though the J.V. season did not go as well as expected, Jay will bring many more good years to the basketball program.





Basketball

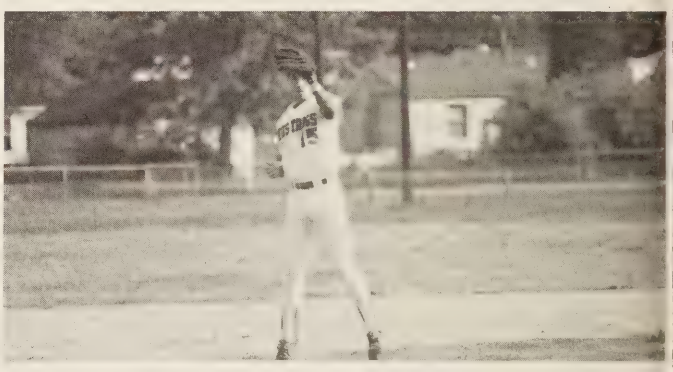
David Pitt also helps out with the scoring load and gives the team a big lift.
The Junior Varsity cheerleaders show their spirit at the games.

The team is quickly moving to the dugout so they can show their strength in batting.

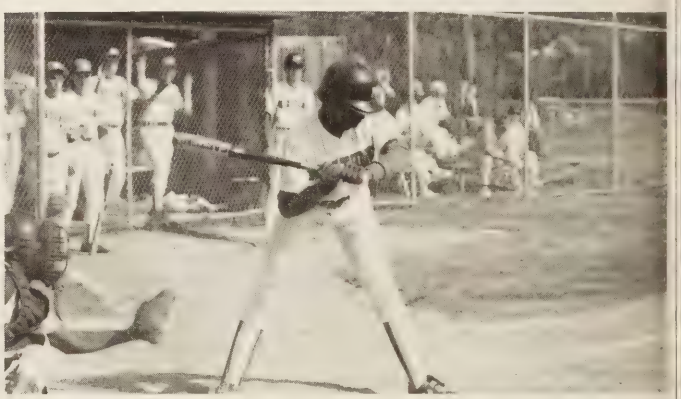
Our team is very supportive of one another.

Varsity Baseball

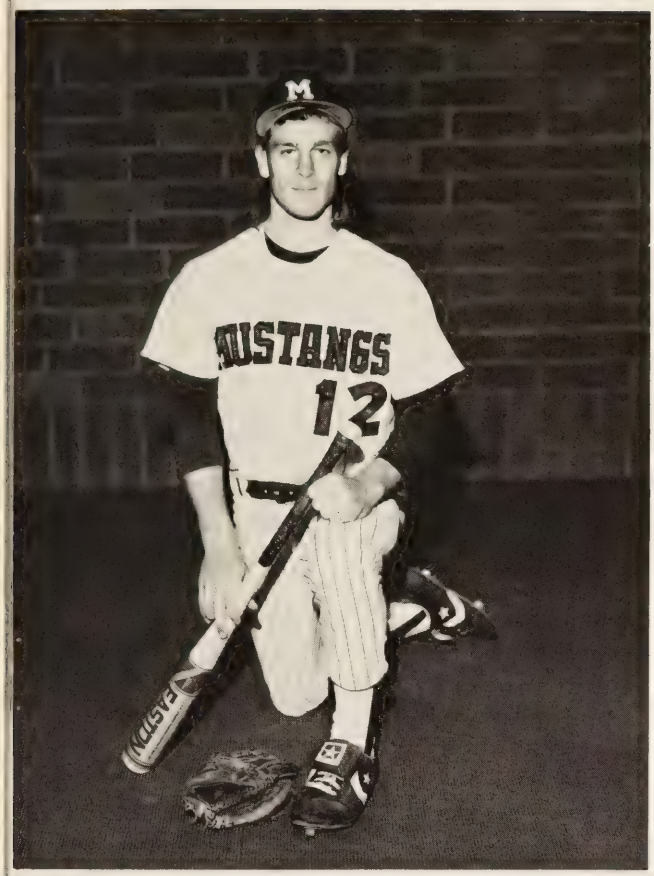
Brian Overstreet looks down because its his last time up to bat for Manor.



Kevin Daniels jump up to snag the ball for the out.



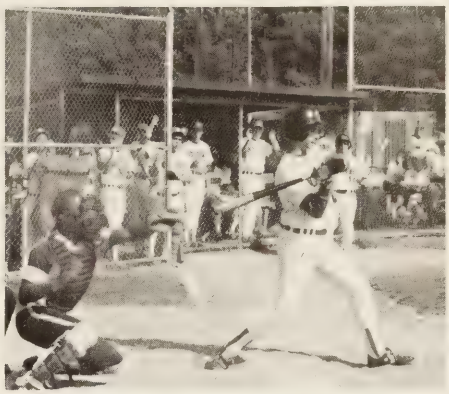
Deshun Lowery is up at bat ready to hit another homerun.



All-State

Clint Osborne was destined to be great when he played his first game on the J.V. baseball team as an eighth grader. A varsity starter since 9th grade, he was named all-state at second base in his junior year. To repeat at all-state and be drafted into pro baseball are two of his goals.

Jim Dover, one of our pitchers, releases the ball hoping for a strike.



Kevin Daniels is up to bat and ready for anything.

Taking Action

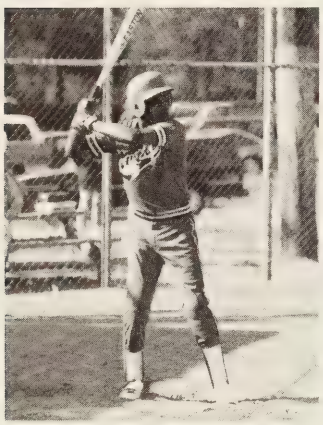
Can you believe Greg Martin ran bases with a cast on his arm?

Mark Jenkins, Kevin Thacker, Ryan Griffin rally together with a few other team members.

Junior Varsity

Coach Williams coaches Chris Morrissette while he is on base.

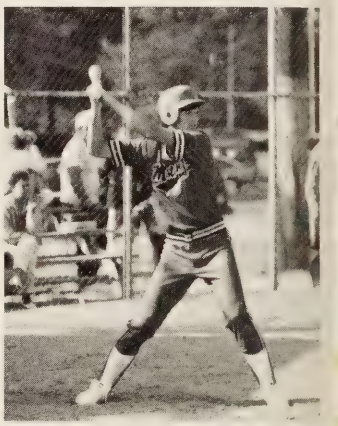
Most valuable newcomer, George May, looks around after the pitch.



Kevin Brown eyes the pitcher.

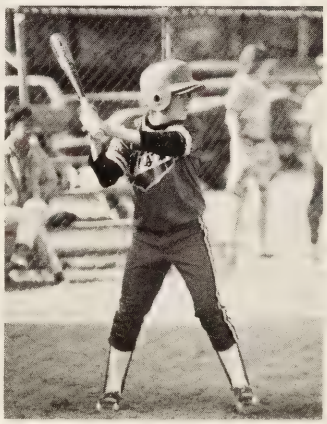
Durand Coltrane swings hard. He wants it out-of-the-park.

Chris Murphy scoops the ball up with some fast action.

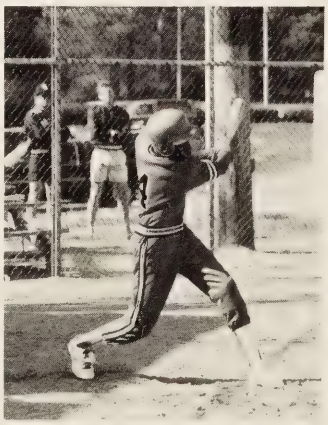


Travis Facenda sets up for the pitch with a stylish position.

George May slides hard in to second base, trying to make the steal.



Chris Murphy looks for the ball with anticipation.



Kevin Brown hits the ball with a powerful swing.

Chris Honeycutt quickly runs for first base.

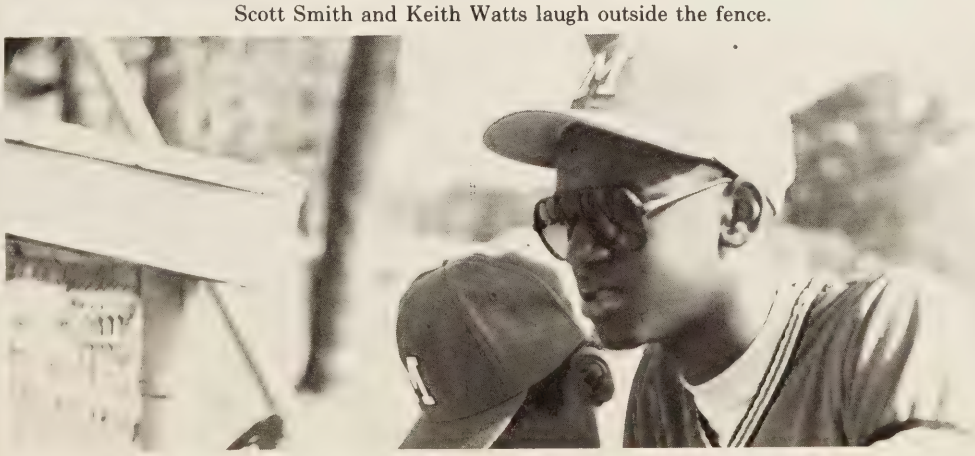
Kneeling left to right Durand Coltrane, Chris Morrissette, Chris Richardson, Chris Honeycutt, Chris Murphy, Darrell Scott, and Kevin Brown.

Coach Williams argues with the umpire, and obviously he is disappointed.

Darryl Williams hits to the infield.

The team huddles around before the fame to make sure everybody knows the plans and to say a prayer.

Scott Smith and Keith Watts laugh outside the fence.



Chris Richardson prepares for the out at first base.

The Great

Time out.

She's safe!

First row: Christina Anderson, Shayne Osborne, Lakicia Coltrane, Julie Daniell, Kimberly Johnson, Angela Hopson, Tammi Williams, Second row: Coach Mike Carr, Kari Auman, Shane Jackson, Kellye Hill, Mary Beth Layne, Kelley Carr, Jennifer Bradshaw, Coach Cornell Gordon

American Pastime

Too hot to handle.

Mary Beth is up at bat.

Tammi is pitching for pride.

Throw a strike.

Are you sure you're o.k.?

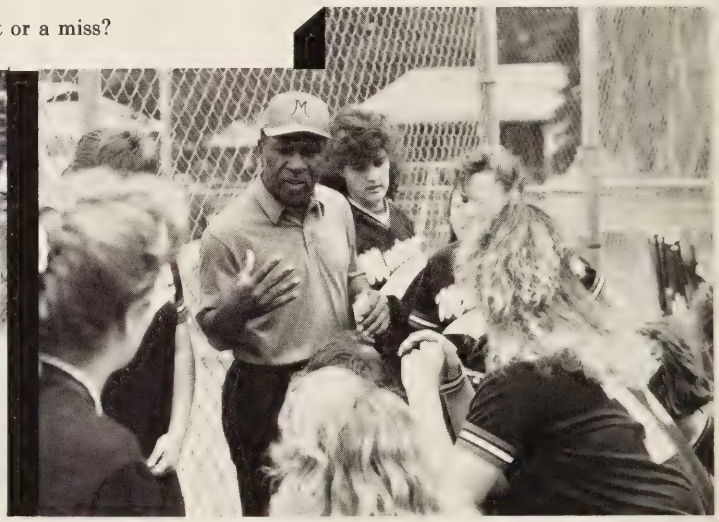
Play Ball

Catch the wave.

Is it a hit or a miss?

Hurry up, throw me the ball!

She's gonna make it home!



Lecture time.

What now coach?

Crystal stops at third.

All play, no work.

ALMA MATER

We of Manor High School stand here today
A generation eager to lead the way.
Our spirits we offer, torches of light
Flamed by your guidance, knowledge and might.
Hands clasped together, brothers we stand
To dedicate our future to your demand
To represent justice, honor and truth
We stand a part of Manor High School.
